How Rich a Treasure We Possess

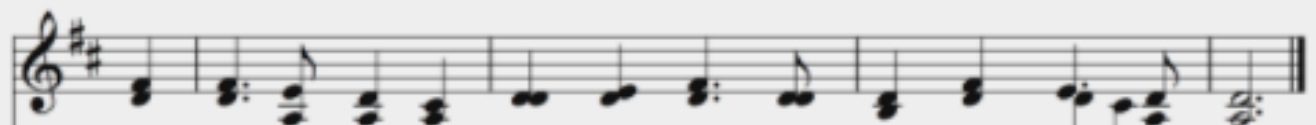

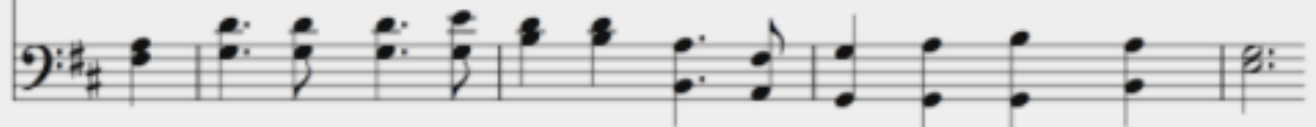

1. How rich a treas - ure we pos - sess in Je - sus Christ, our Lord.
2. How free and cost - ly was the love dis - played up - on the cross!
3. How vast and meas - ure - less the flood of mer - cy un - re strained!

His blood, our ran - som and de - fense; his glo - ry, our re - ward.
While we were dead in un - told sin, the Sov'-reign pur - chased us.
The pen - al - ty was paid in full; the spot - less Lamb was slain.

The sum of all cre - a - ted things is worth - less in com - pare,
The will of God, the Fa - ther dem - on - strat - ed through the Son.
Sal - va - tion, what a price - less gift, re - ceived by grace through faith,

For our in - her - it - ance is Him whose praise an - gels de - clare.
The Spir - it seals the great - est work, the work which Christ has done.
We stand in robes of right - eous - ness; we stand in Je - sus' Name.
